

Jack Francioni School WEEKLY BULLETIN

April 16- April 20, 2018

"Response to intervention is a multi-tiered, layered instructional approach that prevents problems first, and then brings increasingly intense interventions to students who don't respond." -Unknown

KUDOS to Andre and Chanele for being the first to volunteer to open the SEF carnival!

KUDOS to Marelly Nill "Sweets for tweets!" - The lucky winner of a special Starbucks for "Tweeting"

KUDOS to Sunshine Committee for organizing the April Potluck.

LCAP Goal 1 – College and Career Ready: LCAP

LCAP Goal 2 – Proficiency for All

Our students have been working very hard all year long mastering grade level standards. Today, we welcomed Higher Impact Entertainment to our school this afternoon. One assembly was held today as a kickoff to CAASPP testing for upper grades. The other assembly was a character building assembly for lower grades. Jerome and the Funky Monkey had students and teachers motivated and entertained! Everyone at the assembly was up out of their seats and having fun!

LCAP Goal 5- Retaining Qualified Staff

We would like to recognize our exceptional, quality staff-member honorees - Belen Gonzalez, Alxis DeLaRosa and Maricela Chavez. All have been honored this week for their outstanding commitment to our school and community. Please give them a big round of applause!

LCAP Goal 3- Safety

A recent survey revealed that 79% of students reported to spending no more than 2 hours per day away from their phones and electronic devices. This has led to a new medical concern. The term, "Text Neck" has been coined to describe the neck pain and damage sustained from looking down at your cell phone, tablet, or other wireless devices too frequently and for too long.

Experts suggest:

- Hold your cell phone at eye level as much as possible.
- Take frequent breaks from your phone and laptop throughout the day.

LCAP Goal 4- Family and Community Involvement by Elvia Espino, Family Liaison

NIOS: Not In Our School

Michael Prichard, an acclaimed keynote speaker, and youth motivator, will be coming to our school, Jack Francioni, on Monday, April 23rd 2018. He uses his unique, humorous style to empower his young audience with social and emotional skills and influences them to make good choices. We will be meeting from 5:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room. As an introduction, the Jack Francioni NIOS team and their advisors, Aidee Adalco and Marisela Chavez, will debut the anti-bullying video created by the students. We hope to see a full house!

Attention NIOS Members

Do you want to be a part of a mini video? We will be meeting during lunch in the library! Stop by for more information this Thursday and Friday. Any questions? Call Miss Aidee at (831) 540- 0191, or Ms. Chavez, Counselor. The mini video will be on where and what to do to get help for bullying.
