

Jack Francioni School WEEKLY BULLETIN

February 12- February 19, 2018

Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.-Nelson Mandela

Kudos to Annette Aguilar, who was visiting our site, for stepping in to help during our fire drill. Kudos to the Spelling Bee teacher team members for preparing the students and presenting an exemplary spelling bee. Kudos Ms. Chavez for his dedication to students and the school community.

LCAP Goal 2- Proficiency for All

We are following up with the winners of our Jack Francioni Spelling Bee. First place winner is Hannah Barrera. Runner up is Angel Garcia.

They have been congratulated by teachers, staff, peers and Ms. Pantoja, Trustee.

LCAP Goal 1- College and Career Ready

Liaison, Ms. Elvia Espino is making plans for our students to explore different careers. She is organizing a week of activities for students during their lunch and recess break.

LCAP Goal 3- Safety

Thanks to MOT, our request for repainting the numbers to identify classes during emergencies, and drills have been repainted. We changed the order of the numbers to assure that as classes evacuate, student lines to not cross each other. In the past, our youngest students inadvertently stood with the incorrect class as the lines crossed while evacuating. That resulted in confusion while taking role. With the new numbers, and students walking directly to their evacuation site, we will increase student safety.

LCAP Goal 6-Support for Subgroups

Plans are currently underway to build a model of co-teaching for the successful implementation of UDL, Universal Design for Learning. Team members will meet February 21st to continue this process.

Twin Day

Twin Day at Jack Francioni.

LCAP Goal 5- Retaining Qualified Staff

Research documents the importance of celebrating success in support of reinforcing the motivation that will carry us through the next achievement.

Additionally, it helps to lift morale and build and sustain successful relationships. In that spirit, JF staff enjoyed National Pizza day while celebrating the hard work of students and staff, the completion of the interims, the amazing weather, and of course, a 3-day weekend.

Community Involvement

LCAP Goal 4- Family and Community Involvement by Elvia Espino, Family Liaison
