

Jack Francioni School

WEEKLY BULLETIN

October 9- October 13, 2017

"Can our school be so welcoming, so inviting, and so comfortable that every person who walks through our doors believes they are about to have an amazing experience?"- Douglas B. Fisher and Nancy Frey How to Create a Culture of Achievement in Your School and Classroom

Kudos Alxis De La Rosa, Marisela Chavez and Elvia Espino - coordinating the Anti-bullying activities
Cynthia Sumner, Jenifer Morris and Chanele Cruz for organizing the Read 180 groups and readying the room.

Kudos Juan Ovalle for ALWAYS being available to help keep our students safe while crossing the street.

"Academic Success Is Non-Negotiable"

Volunteers

Parents volunteering in their students' classroom or as a school-wide volunteer are a welcome addition to our school environment. Ways to help at school include: Room Parent, Process book orders, Assist students with math reading and other academics, Help with special classroom events, and Attend special celebrations at school, such as Student of the Month Assemblies, Evening academic events, and performances. Please check with the classroom teacher before volunteering and check in at the office for a visitor pass. For safety and security reasons, parents without a visitor pass during the school day will be asked to return to the office to sign in and get one.

Student Council

Last week the 4th 5th and 6th graders interested in Student Council leadership prepared and delivered outstanding campaign speeches to the student body. Here is the body of President- Raul Vargas' speech.

Hello my name is Raul M. Vargas.
I'm running for president this year. A reason you should vote for me is because I'm responsible, respectful, and safe. I will also listen to you if you need help or any ideas to make the school greater than it's ever been. I will try to get soccer balls so we can play soccer. I will also try to get more table balls so there won't be big lines and so more people can play. I will also try my best to get us some baseball bats, and gloves, I'm not sure I'll be able to but I'll try my best to get us baseball bats, and gloves. These are reasons why you should vote for me as president.

LCAP Goal- Proficiency for all

Our local SRO, Chris Tyler and the Soledad PD Chief Sills were on site reading with students in third grade. The Officers stressed the importance of reading and literacy in all future career endeavors. The students had the opportunity to read to the officers and show them how much they are learning in class.

PBIS

Jack students have spent the week engaged in anti-bullying activities. Students have been receiving buttons, ribbons, and bookmarks for dressing in each day's theme.
Tuesday - Wear Boots to Stomp out Bullying
Wednesday - Wear crazy socks to "Sock it to Bullying"
Thursday - Wear a Super Hero shirt as heroes are not bullies
Friday - Wear a Soledad Team shirt to show Teaming up against bullying.
Nearly all participated to show support for our safe school!
