

Jack Francioni School WEEKLY BULLETIN

October 16- October 20, 2017

"Deep understanding is important if students are going to set their own expectations and monitor their own achievement. But, schooling should not stop there. Learning demands that students be able to apply - transfer - their knowledge, skills, and strategies to new tasks and new situations." - Douglas B. Fisher and Nancy Frey Teaching Literacy in the visible Learning Classroom

Kudos to April Richardson and class - Modeling our school wide expectations of respect, responsibility and safety while Kudos to Lisa Tow and Janette De Anda for stepping up to take the lead in documenting our weekly Pupil Supervisor meetings. Kudos to Alma for her positive presence and her bright smile.

"Academic Success Is Non-Negotiable"

Volunteers

School Site Council (SSC) members met Thursday evening at 6:00. We welcomed new members, Joe and Tiffany Haro. The council gave direction on Title I and Title III spending. Council members expressed interest in seeing Teacher's Editions and classroom materials to address the achievement gaps in the CAASPP scores.

LCAP Goal- Proficiency for all

Teachers and students in grades 3-6 are completing their NWEA, MAP (Measures of Academic Progress) standardized assessments. The results will be available within 24 hours of completion. Teachers will use the results, along with the newly release CAASPP results, to set academic goals.

Student Council

Recently, 4th 5th and 6th graders interested in Student Council leadership prepared and delivered outstanding campaign speeches to the student body. Here is the speech written by Vice President- Itzel Figueroa.

"Hello I'm Itzel Figueroa I'm in 6th grade and I am running for Vice President. I have many great ideas for this new school year. I am willing to cooperate with anyone that wins the elections so we can make this a successful school year. I would like to make this a memorable year because it is my last year in elementary, and I want to make the best of it. I would also like to make it possible to have the sports that we wanted in the past years including soccer, basketball, and volleyball. This year if we raise enough money we can have that shade protection. So I hope that you have liked my ideas and I promise that we will work as a team and make this our best school year. We will also try to make this a bully-free school. I hope that we have a great year no matter what, and thank you for your votes."

PBIS

Jack students have continued to be engaged in anti-bullying activities. On Monday, 10/9, No Bully Zone provided separate assemblies for lower and upper primary students. On Wednesday, 10/11, Aidee Aldaco, District Liaison, brought a group of High School students to share their work with NIOS (Not In Our School), an anti-bullying, student-led effort.

LCAP Goal- Safety

Jack Francioni School recently welcomed new Pupil Supervisor, Alma Castellano. She is a welcome addition to our staff. Our kindergarten and first grade students are benefitting from her warmth and positive presence. Additionally, our recent recruitment efforts have provided 4 potential candidates to fill our 3 Pupil Supervisor vacancies.

LCAP Goal- Retaining Qualified Staff

During staff meeting, Teachers were asked to participate in triads, 1 who has been attending Fisher/Frey, 1 HMH Math and 1 HMH ELA, to find similarities in the content of the professional development opportunities in order to provide a clear academic focus for our students.
